Kennedy Decides To Meet Humphrey In West Va. Debate

New Englander Takes Offensive On Religion Issue

WHEELING, W. Va. (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), obviously irked at the persistent needling of Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) and his supporters, angrily accepted Humphrey's challenge Tuesday to a face-to-face debate in their presidential primary fight and made the subject of his religion a major topic in his hop-and-skip speeches.

The two moves represent a complete turnabout from his method of campaigning in Wisconsin, where he defeated Humphrey earlier this month.

"In view of the way the campaign is evolving in West Virginia," Kennedy said bluntly, "I can't accept the current attacks without fighting back."

No Time Or Place Set

He said he had refused to meet Humphrey on the same platform in Wisconsin because he felt it would be "harmful to the party and to the candidates to have intense personal debate."

But that's all changed now, he said.

No time or place has been set for the debate.

WSAZ-TV at Huntington announced the two would appear on an hour-long television show on May 9—election eve, but this is planned as a question-answer session with a panel of newsmen.

In Washington, Humphrey expressed delight that Kennedy had accepted his challenge to a face-to-face debate.

"It will be, I am sure, a healthy discussion of the principal issues of the campaign, serving to inform the people, to develop programs and policies, to strengthen the Democratic party and to strengthen our country," Humphrey's statement said.

At a stop at nearby Bethany College, a heckler who trailed him through much of his Wisconsin campaign and is following him through northern West Virginia, asked Kennedy how he could square his duties as president with those of a Catholic.

"I don't take orders from above," Kennedy replied.

Students Applaud

"I am going to go to church where I want, regardless of whether I'm elected president or not," he said.

This drew a long ovation from the students, Bethany is a Disciples of Christ school with an enrollment of 700.

Wheeling, an industrial city on the Ohio River, is the stronghold of Catholicism in the state, accounting for 30 per cent of the population in the general Wheeling area. Over-all, the Catholics make up about 5 per cent of the West Virginia population.

More Potent Salk Vaccine Developed

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Foundation said Tuesday a new, more potent Salk vaccine has cut the polio immunization dosage by two-thirds.

Dr. Daniel Bergsma, former New Jersey health commissioner and now an associate director of medical care for the Foundation, said two shots of half a cubic centimeter each are expected to be as effective as the old dosage of three shots of one c.c. each.

De Gaulle Urges Summit Accord Banning Missiles

OTTAWA (AP)—French President Charles de Gaulle called Tuesday for a summit agreement banning missiles and other vehicles capable of carrying nuclear weapons.

He described such a course as a beginning on nuclear disarmament. Banning of missiles, he said, is one of the objectives he would like to see achieved at the summit conference opening in Paris May 16.

In a formal speech, the touring French leader said nothing about prohibition of nuclear weapons themselves but at a news conference later he repeated France's position that she would be willing to ban such weapons if the other nuclear powers—the United States, Soviet Union and Britain—would cease production and de-

Negroes Stage Protest March After Bombing

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Thousands of Negroes marched to the office of Mayor Ben West shortly after noon Tuesday in dramatic protest against segregation—"and now a bombing."

The mayor met the group on the steps at City Hall and told their leaders in answer to questions that he personally thought it wrong to discriminate against anyone because of race.

"Do you recommend the merchants open their lunch counters to all citizens?" Miss Diane Nash, Negro student at Fisk University, asked.

"Yes," West replied. His answer was followed by cheering from the crowd, consisting mostly of Negro college and high school students.

The protest march was formed a few hours after the home of Negro lawyer Z. Alexander Loomis, an integration leader, was dynamited while he and his wife slept in a back bedroom. Neither was injured.

The house was about 85 per cent destroyed and police said they believe the dynamite was thrown from a passing car. The explosion also damaged houses on each side of the Loomis home. Windows were blown from buildings across the street and buildings were jarred at nearby Fisk University, another Negro school.

Loomy, 62, a life member of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People said the bombing would not intimidate him or keep him from continuing his work.

A veteran member of the Nashville City Council, Loomis has represented scores of Negro college students arrested here in recent weeks during lunch counter sit-in demonstrations. Nearly 150 such cases are pending court.

Trading Stamp Problem Licked By Government

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The government had its trading stamp problem licked Tuesday—or almost.

Officials who have been wondering what to do with green and yellow stamps which have piled up in gas and oil purchases were told they can give them away, on one condition.

The condition, as set forth by the General Accounting Office (GAO) was that no federal money be spent in doling out the stamps.

U.S. Rebukes South Korea Government

Herter Denounces Rhee's Measures As "Repressive"

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, in an unusual public rebuke, called on South Korea Tuesday to end what he called "repressive measures" against antigovernment demonstrators.

"Unsuited to a free democracy," Herter said of the crackdown by South Korean soldiers and police.

Herter spoke out publicly after calling in South Korea's ambassador, Dr. You Chan Yang, to express the "profound and growing concern" of this government.

Herter met with the ambassador in the wake of bloody riots in five Korean cities which had left 80 or more dead and more than 300 injured.

Sympathy For Demonstrators

Showing sympathy with the demonstrators, Herter called on President Syngman Rhee's government to take swift action to restore fundamental freedoms in the jittery Asian republic.

"Ambassador Yang was informed that this government believes that the demonstrations in Korea are a reflection of popular dissatisfaction over the conduct of the recent election and repressive measures unsuited to a free democracy," the department said in a statement summarizing Herter's views.

Leaving Herter's office, Yang refused to acknowledge that his government was guilty of repressive measures.

Red Reinvasion Feared

Authorities said Herter's attitude reflected serious worry over the prospect that North Korean Communists might seize on the riots as an excuse for reinvading South Korea.

North Korean soldiers are reported nearly double the size of the 500,000 man Korean army. Two U.S. divisions, plus supporting units, make up the 50,000-man American garrison in South Korea.

The outbreak of rioting raised the possibility that President Eisenhower might cancel a scheduled goodwill visit to South Korea scheduled for next June.

Yang told newsmen such a possibility was not mentioned during his talk with Herter.

Eisenhower Acts To Heal Panama Rift

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower kept a watchful eye Tuesday on riotous uprisings in Korea while taking steps to smooth over U.S. difficulties with Panama.

For the moment, no change was in sight in Eisenhower's plans to visit Korea June 22 near the end of his tour to the Soviet Union and Japan.

"I'm not going to comment on that now," said Wayne Hawks, acting press secretary.

U.S.-Panamanian relations have been upset for months over such things as money and economic difficulties and the flying of the American flag alone in the Canal Zone, over which Panama retains titular sovereignty.

Eisenhower did nothing Tuesday about granting Panama the right to fly her own flag beside the Stars and Stripes in the Canal Zone, but he did lay down a free port program designed to erase some of the differences over economic matters.

Arrived at after consultations between U.S. and Panamanian officials, the program calls for such things as:

Pay raises for teachers and the less skilled Panamanian workers in the Canal Zone, more chances for better jobs for Panamanians, and construction of 1,000 homes for Panamanian employees of the zone.

Fidel Claims To See Similarity Between U.S., Hitler Policies

HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro was quoted Tuesday as saying he wants better relations with the United States, but professed to find some similarity between U. S. policies and those of Hitler and Mussolini.

The Cuban revolutionary leader, however, denied emphatically that he was the inspiration for a suggestion that he meet with President Eisenhower or Secretary of State Christian A. Herter.

Castro promised a major policy statement May 1, when he speaks to a rally here celebrating the day as International Workers' Day. He predicted the demonstration would show that Cuban people are united "in defense of the revolution."

Castro's statements were made in a second interview with correspondent Richard Bate of the Columbia Broadcasting System and published in the semiofficial newspaper Revolution. The interview was given, the paper said, to clarify what Castro claimed had been a misquotation of an earlier interview with Bate.

Castro seemed most anxious to say it was not he who had suggested a meeting with U. S. leaders, but that he had simply answered a question on that subject and that the North American news agencies, reporting this, "changed my words with every intent to discredit the Cuban government."

Castro then was asked to comment on the often expressed doctrine that "anticommunism is counterrevolutionary."

"I think that Hitler and Mussolini started to talk about communism in order to persecute all free men, to persecute every type of justice. Remember Hitler and Mussolini. Remember Senor Franco (the Spanish dictator), that friend of Eisenhower," Castro replied.

"The only thing Franco, Hitler and Mussolini were accustomed to say was that they were enemies of communism, and while talking of communism they attempted to justify every sort of aggressions, and I think there exists today some similarity in the policy of the government of the United States of North America which appears to have adopted a policy that, in other times served to advance fascism."

"It is difficult to understand how the Prime Minister can make such references when 95 per cent of the Cuban press is under government control."

State Department press officer, Lincoln White denounced this as "another of the baseless remarks which the Cuban Prime Minister makes from time to time for reasons best known to himself."

The U.S. spokesman noted that the United States had gone to war against Hitler and Mussolini in World War II. He said America now considers international communism a real threat to democracy and hopes that Castro and the Cuban people will come to realize this.

"If comparisons must be made," White said, "one of the principal hallmarks of a dictatorship such as that of Hitler and Mussolini was the muzzling of a free press."

"It is difficult to understand how the Prime Minister can make such references when 95 per cent of the Cuban press is under government control."

Davis Grabs Big Lead In Louisiana

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Jimmie Davis hauled his peace and harmony program into a commanding lead on early returns from Tuesday's governor's election.

With returns in from 140 of the state's 2,109 precincts, Davis piled up 27,693 votes, a big bulge over the 7,318 votes attracted by Republican Francis Grevenberg.

The hard-bitten former Louisiana state police chief, the strong candidate offered by the GOP in years, was no match for Davis from the moment the votes were counted.

Chou Arrives In India; Given Cold Reception

NEW DELHI India (AP)—Red China's Premier Chou En-Lai, looking glum and stolid, arrived Tuesday for talks on the bitter boundary dispute with India. He was promptly told by Prime Minister Nehru that India's relations with Communist China "have been imperiled for the present and future."

This declaration, voiced shortly after Chou stepped from an Indian air force plane, set the tone for one of the toughest speeches Nehru has ever made to a visiting dignitary.

The usually affable Nehru wore a tight smile.

"When Your Excellency came here three years ago as the representative of a great people conveying your greetings and good wishes to our people, we reciprocated in full," he told Chou.

"Unfortunately, other events have taken place since then which have put a great strain on this bond of friendship and which have given a shock to all our people."

Nehru left no doubts that the "events" were last year's border clashes with Chinese soldiers. A dozen Indians were killed as Peiping enforced its claim to 41,000 square miles of mountain territory.

Nehru's strong words, and the unusually chilly reception, had Chou grim-faced. But the Communist leader read off a prepared speech voicing friendship for India and hopes for settling the border crisis. Such a settlement, he added, should be reached "in accordance with the principles of co-existence."

On his three-nation tour, Chou has been trying to rebuild Red China's image as a peaceful neighbor. This was shattered by Communist suppression of last year's revolt in Tibet.

But his smiling demeanor in Burma, where he even got into holiday water fights with festive Burmese last week, was in marked contrast to the way he looked here.

Civil Rights Bill Clears Its Next To Last Barrier

WASHINGTON (AP)—A civil rights law centering on protection of Negro voting rights got a big boost toward enactment Tuesday. Final passage is expected Thursday in the House.

The House Rules Committee, its Southern leadership bowing to the inevitable, cleared the compromise bill for final consideration. If, as seems almost certain, the House votes to accept Senate changes, the legislation will go to President Eisenhower without further Senate or House consideration.

The committee voted 8-4 to send to the House a bill main provision of which is for court-appointed referees to act on complaints of voting rights denial because of race.

Based originally on an Eisenhower administration recommendation, the referee provision was hammered out in a series of compromises between Southerners and the bipartisan group seeking a tough civil rights law. The Senate added clauses specifying that its provisions could not override basic state qualifications for voting, and that the courts should set times and places for hearings. The final product was still objectionable to Southerners, but it also was criticized as weak by some leaders of the civil rights group in Congress and of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

The bill would provide penalties up to $1,000 fine and a year in prison for obstruction of federal court orders. The Senate made a major change in this section, which now requires House approval.

Capital Tense After Bloody Day Of Riots

Flames Of Civilian Revolt Dying Out After Scores Killed

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—Defiant students and townspeople armed with guns, knives and clubs held mob control over northeastern Seoul Wednesday in the bloody, fiery Korean civilian revolt against alleged political corruption. Ruins of public buildings still smoked from mob-set fires.

Korean military forces were moving relentlessly into the capital.

On the international front the United States rebuked the Korean government for repressive measures.

President Syngman Rhee's government—now in its fourth four-year term—called soldiers into Seoul and proclaimed martial law here and in four other cities Tuesday night after clashes between police and 100,000 demonstrators challenging the count of ballots in recent national elections.

The soldiers quickly cleared most streets in Seoul and other cities and restored a brooding peace.

Army Tanks Move In

But in northeastern Seoul, hotbed of resistance to Rhee's ruling Liberal party, hundreds of die-hard demonstrators still roamed. Army tanks and truckloads of soldiers moved on that sector Wednesday morning.

School boys were in the forefront of Tuesday's swirling battle where tear gas fell thick and police rifles poured volley after volley into the ranks of the demonstrators.

Many victims were seen crawling from the scene or being carried away on the backs of comrades.

Police said 21 were killed, but unofficial totals were 81 killed and 300 wounded.

Seoul was grim and battle-scarred on the morning after. Sixteen buildings were set afire and destroyed. Among them were 12 police stations and the pro-government newspaper Seoul Shinmun and the anti-Communist center.

Ten other police stations were damaged.

Quiet In Other Cities

Kwangju, Pusan, Taegu, Taejon, all under martial law, were quiet. Many public buildings, including police stations, headquarters of the Liberal party and offices of the anti-Communist Youth Corps, accused of being a strong arm organization, were attacked and damaged in Kwangju and Pusan.

A mopping-up operation apparently was in progress in the northeastern section of Seoul. Gunfire was heard in that section early Wednesday.

A 14-year-old schoolboy was killed, apparently by a stray bullet, in downtown Seoul. But no other violence was reported in the central part of the capital early Wednesday.

Truckloads of troops still rolling into Seoul were from the 15th ROK (Republic of Korea) Division, released from the operational control of the U.N. Command at the request of the Defense Ministry.

"Emergency martial law"—meaning military rule under wartime conditions—was invoked to meet a swelling tidal wave of public protests growing out of March 15 polling which re-elected Rhee—(Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

Case Clinches Renomination

NEWARK, N.J. (UPI)—U.S. Sen. Clifford P. Case, a liberal, clinched renomination Tuesday night over Old Guard Communist-bunker Robert Morris in New Jersey's Republican primary election.

With 2,089 of 4,284 election districts reported, Case had 96,592 votes to 56,956 for Morris. A third challenger for the nomination ran out of steam early in the counting.

On the Democratic side, Mercer County Democratic Chairman Thorn Lord easily captured his party's senatorial nomination over political neophyte Richard M. Glassner, a Newark attorney.

With 1,701 of 4,284 election districts reporting, Lord had 62,020 votes to 19,203 for Glassner.

The biggest surprise, however, was the ease with which Case dispatched his chief challenger after a nip-and-tuck start.

With half the districts tabulated, the incumbent pulled 61 per cent of the total vote to about 32 per cent for Morris.

Syngman Rhee Faces Career's Gravest Crisis

By JAMES CARY

TOKYO (AP) — Old warrior Syngman Rhee is under the heaviest fire of his long turbulent career. It comes from an angry section of the nation he dedicated his life to creating—the Republic of South Korea.

Can he survive?

Students and opposition politicians have called for his resignation. They say this will quiet the violent demonstrations that have led to martial law and rocked the nation in the wake of charges Rhee's March 15 election to a fourth term was rigged.

The tide of opinion seemed running strong against the 85-year-old, staunchly anti-Communist leader. But few felt he would step down.

Rhee is a man of many images: The revolutionary leader who struggled against Korea's last monarchy and Japan's occupation from 1905 to 1945. The patriot who suffered torture, imprisonment and humiliation but clung to his dream of a modern, independent Korea. A man of stubborn courage who at times has been almost a lone voice calling for all out war to crush communism, and drive the Communists from the northern half of his nation.

A scholar and Christian, a conservationist, a tireless worker. A dictator tolerating no opinions but his own, ruling with an iron control like a Chinese warlord. A doddering old man, gripped by a growing senility, surrounded by fawning "yes" men who have used him to screen their erection of a power structure to maintain themselves in office.

Some say Korea's capacity and yearning for democracy has outstripped the government's ability to grant more freedom, and that the Korean people have outgrown Rhee's own understanding of them. They say they are no longer children willing to be ruled by a stern father.

Whether this be true, Rhee is faced with a personal crisis of greater magnitude than ever before. This time police efforts to crush antigovernment outbursts have touched off deeper and more widespread uprisings. Efforts to use softer tactics have brought similar results.

This is the dilemma of Rhee and his government as one of the world's most colorful figures stands in the twilight of a spectacular career.

The first normal school in the world was established in Vermont.

Army Unveils 'Breakthrough' Radar System

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Army Tuesday unveiled a previously-secret radar system that can pinpoint key military targets and map streets and other features of large cities hundreds of miles inside the Iron Curtain.

The radar is designed to be carried by aircraft which can do their work while flying safely over friendly territory. It makes a picture so clear that the terrain being mapped looks as if it were directly beneath the plane.

In this respect, the new system, developed by the Army Signal Corps, outperforms the human eye, cameras, and previous radar.

"This radar is a breakthrough," Brig. Gen. W. M. Thames, commander of the Army Combat Surveillance Agency, told newsmen watching a demonstration at the National Airport here.

The radar has obvious implications for improved missile aiming. Remote objects stand out in their real size in radar images and do not merge together as closely-spaced "targets."

By way of illustration, the Army pointed out how a long row of telephone poles merge together in the distance when viewed by human eyes. With the new radar, buildings stand out plainly rather than merging with surrounding areas.

The University of Michigan's Willow Run laboratories developed the airborne radar device for the Army. Texas Instruments Inc., Dallas, put together the first four prototype models.

Martin Earnings Up

NEW YORK (AP)—Martin Co. sales and earnings for the first quarter ran nearly 15 per cent ahead of the corresponding 1959 period and should maintain that pace for the rest of the year. Two American civilians were Chairman George M. Bunker said among those hurt in melees between students and police.

Bunker told the New York Society of Security Analysts the sion, spearheaded by a tank company, moved into Seoul, and more $3,488,112, or $1.13 a share, on sales of $140,839,907 in the three months ended March 31. A year of demonstrators cheered earlier, earnings were $3,071,591, them — their argument was with or 99 cents a share, on sales of the Liberal party and the President, not with the army.

Bethlehem Offer Rejected

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Bethlehem Steel Co. Tuesday submitted revised proposals in an effort to settle a nine-week strike at its eight East Coast shipyards. The proposals were rejected by the union.

The offer by Bethlehem was made during a four-hour session in federal mediation offices. Another meeting was scheduled for 2 p.m. e.s.t. Wednesday.

The company said its proposals, "included such concessions as liberalized pensions and insurance benefits, more generous call-in and minimum pay provisions and restoration of the provisions of the prior agreement whereby employees hired prior to Nov. 10, 1949, would be laid off or recalled on the basis of their length of service provided they have the ability to provide the work."

A company spokesman said the offer was considered a retreat from Bethlehem's previous stand that "skill and efficiency" be determining factors in the issue of seniority, one of the key disputes in a contract deadlock extending back to last summer.

Capital Tense

this country's "George Washington" and first president.

Seoul, Pusan, Taegu, Taejon and Kwangju were under martial law, and the capital for a time seemed almost in a state of anarchy. The army imposed censorship on Korean newspapers.

Seoul was in a state of riotous turmoil throughout Tuesday. Several buildings were set fire. A cheering, jeering, chanting horde of students, about 5,000 strong, smashed through a curtain of tear gas, streams of fire-hose water and a barbed wire barricade to within 60 yards of Rhee's official residence before police opened fire.

The students, some mere children in somber, black school uniforms, were joined by thousands of townspeople angrily denouncing the results of the election, which the opposition says was rigged by the ruling Liberal party and police coercion.

U.S. Ambassador Walter P. McCaughy personally urged Rhee to "take into account the basic causes and grievances" of the demonstrators.

U. S. servicemen stationed in Seoul were confined to their posts, pace for the rest of the year. Two American civilians were Chairman George M. Bunker said among those hurt in melees between students and police.

At nightfall, an infantry division, spearheaded by a tank company, moved into Seoul, and more $3,488,112, or $1.13 a share, on sales of $140,839,907 in the three months ended March 31. A year of demonstrators cheered earlier, earnings were $3,071,591, them — their argument was with or 99 cents a share, on sales of the Liberal party and the President, not with the army.

Administration Seen Dropping FPC's Connoles

WASHINGTON (AP)—Commissioner William R. Connoles, of the Federal Power Commission, who has acknowledged backstage talks with a natural gas company lawyer, reportedly is being dropped by the Eisenhower administration.

Congressional sources said Tuesday Connoles, 37, was told by the White House he would not be renominated for another five-year term on the FPC after his current term expires on June 22.

These sources said Connoles, a political independent from Connecticut, got the word before disclosure last month that he and other FPC members had off-the-record contacts with Thomas (Tommy) Cork, Corcoran, a former New Deal power now representing the Tennessee Gas Transmission Co.

Connoles and other FPC commissioners have denied any wrongdoing and have said their talks with Corcoran didn't influence their votes on the case involving his firm. The matter now is being explored by the House Legislative Oversight subcommittee, with public hearings set for May 2.

It was reported on Capitol Hill that President Eisenhower may name in Connoles's place Harold I. Baynton, a Democrat now serving as chief counsel of the Senate Commerce Committee.

The law specifies no more than three of the five commission members may be of the same political party. Three Republicans currently are members.

Connoles, who was appointed to the FPC by Eisenhower in 1955, declined comment on the reports. The vacation White House at Augusta, Ga., refused to confirm or deny those reports.

Government Accepts Ike Offer Of Papers, Library Won By Three

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower has offered to give the government the bulk of his private and presidential papers and a three-million-dollar library to house them. The government has accepted.

The library is under construction near Eisenhower's boyhood home at Abilene, Kan.

In offering it and his papers to the government Eisenhower said it is his purpose to make the documents available "for serious research as soon as possible and to the fullest extent possible." Some documents will remain confidential and be put under seal.

Eisenhower said his White House office papers alone destined for the library, are estimated to include several million documents. These will be turned over to the library when he completes his term Jan. 20.

Other official and personal papers, for which he gave no count, will be turned over to the library later.

The Eisenhower library is part of a partially completed "Eisenhower Center" at Abilene. The center includes the President's boyhood home and a museum containing two million dollars worth of mementoes and gifts Eisenhower has acquired during his military and presidential career.

Tax Returns Deluge IRS In Baltimore

BALTIMORE (AP)—The inevitable deluge of last-minute income tax mail piled up at the Internal Revenue Service's new office building here Tuesday.

If it had been dropped on the place piece by piece, the 300,000 envelopes which arrives Saturday, Monday and Tuesday would have resembled a Western Maryland blizzard. But they were piled neatly in about 40 canvas hampers.

The tax deadline, both federal and state, fell on midnight Monday. It was a three-day extension past the 15th, which fell on Good Friday.

For most taxpayers it was the usual grim business of etching the year's financial profile. However, a few humorists added a whimsical touch.

"Arise ye prisoners of taxation," one scribbled on the outside of an envelope.

Another, in the spirit of the season, attached this note to his form which called for a refund from money withheld.

"Dear Easter Bunny: Please refund our money. We have waited each day. No offense meant. Just hor up our way."

Baltimore is the gathering point of returns filed in Maryland and the District of Columbia.

Irving Machiz, who heads the federal IRS office here, said it would take at least a week to sort the stacks of mail which arrived in the past few days.

A total of 1,550,000 individual returns are due in the 1959 tax count. Of those processed at the latest report, 583,361 were eligible for refunds amounting to 64½ million dollars.

IRS here handles some two million tax returns. In addition to income tax forms, there are excise levies. They all add up to a big take — two billion dollars, or approximately 1-40th of the national budget.

Meanwhile, at Annapolis the Comptroller's Income Tax Division said state income tax returns were "coming in by the truckloads."

More than one million forms are expected to be handled, with 50 to 60 per cent coming in during the past two days.

Benjamin F. Marsh, chief of the division, said about 400,000 returns were filed early. The office expects a total of 875,000 returns from individuals and 75,000 from corporations, partnerships, non-residents and trust funds.

In addition, there will be about 100,000 declarations on estimated tax payments for 1960.

Weather Aids Md. Farmers

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) — The weather was more suitable last week in Maryland and Delaware and as a result farmers made good progress in catching up with their work.

Despite the upswing in activity, the Maryland-Delaware Crop Reporting Service added Tuesday, plowing and planting schedules were running behind a year ago.

The service said winter grains made good growth in the two states.

Soil moisture was adequate, but it was too wet in a few areas.

The persistent wintry snow flurries and low temperatures caused Garrett County farmers to lag behind the remainder of the state. Little planting had been done and plowing had just started.

Temperatures dropped to 29 — three below freezing — in the Hancock orchard belt late Monday and early Tuesday but orchardists said peach buds came through without damage. The trees were reported in full bloom.

Apples were expected to reach full bloom during the April 26-May 3 period.

The many services offered by the county chapter cannot be inter-ferred with, she pointed out, since persons stricken with cancer need constant care.

The average distribution of surgical dressings by the chapter each month is about 1,000, the chapter president said. These are made by volunteer workers from specially-treated cotton material that is furnished by the Maryland Cancer Society.

B&O Faces Second Charge Of Blocking

R. J. Cannon, division superintendent of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company yesterday was issued another summons to appear in Police Court and answer a charge that a train blocked the Baltimore Street crossing for more than five minutes.

The summons issued yesterday is the second obtained by City Police against the railroad this year. On March 10, Magistrate F. Allan Weatherholt issued a warrant charging the railroad with violation of Chapter 11, Section 5-FF of the City Code. The code prohibits blocking of a crossing for more than five minutes.

Yesterday's warrant was obtained from Magistrate Paul Barnett by Lt. Donald Smith and Officers Joseph Harvey and Wayne S. Swager. The officers obtained the warrant after observing a freight train stand approximately 20 minutes from 6:35 until 6:55 a. m.

Meanwhile, two local motorists were charged yesterday for running the traffic gates while the train was parked at the Baltimore Street crossing.

Officer Harvey charged the drivers with violation of Chapter 11, Section 4-a of the City Code which charges them with failing to obey an automatic traffic control device.

Officer Harvey said the drivers complained that the gates were down a "long" period of time and that they were in a hurry to get to work.

The first case against the railroad is still pending. It was scheduled for March 11, however postponed until April 27. Railroad attorneys and city officials postponed the hearing until a discussion of the matter could be held.

City Attorney William R. Car-scaden, who instructed officers to obtain the first warrant, said the city expects both cases to be heard on May 10 in Police Court.

Another Girl Selected For Carnival Court

Another princess has been named for the court of Senorita Mercedes Arelliza, daughter of the Spanish ambassador to the U.S., who will reign as queen over the Cumberland Sports Carnival here May 9-15.

John W. Goldworthy, principal of Keyser High School, announced that Miss Priscilla Amtower has been selected by the senior class to represent Keyser.

With her in the Queen's court will be young ladies representing most of the communities within a radius of 75 miles of Cumberland. She will participate in various social and community activities planned during the week's celebration to be climaxed with the National Sports Car Races sponsored by the Lions Club Foundation at Cumberland Municipal Airport.

Miss Amtower, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice L. Amtower, has had an active high school career. Activities include Tri-Hi-Y, Keyser High School Band, the 4-H Club and the high school's Senior Chorus. She is also a member of Youth Fellowship, Fountain E. U. B. Y. F., and the Mt. Zion E. U. B. Sunday School, of which she has been secretary and pianist. She has studied piano seven years.

Miss Amtower has a number of hobbies in addition to playing the piano. These include collecting V. Burke, who holds a number of local and state labor positions, reported that the article stating in the committee was a complete surprise and added that he had not been contacted by the Morse committee to serve on it.

However, Burke stated that he was called before Judge Harris informed Alvin Akman of the Re-tail Store Employees Union in Baltimore, chairman of the Morse committee, that he would be willing to arrange for a local hall lesson in the time he had al-in case the candidate would wish to speak here.

Buildings Cited As Hazards

Dr. Ton van Strien, county health officer, yesterday notified the Allegany County Board of Commissioners that two buildings in Pekin are unfit for human habitation and are fire and health hazards.

The properties, one a former tavern and pool room and the other a double frame dwelling, are owned by Samuel Dudley, according to Dr. van Strien. He said the owner has 30 days to make the necessary repairs. In the event the repairs are not made the properties will be condemned, Dr. Van Strien re-ported.

City Requests Lower Ceiling For Airport

The City of Cumberland has requested the Federal Aviation Agency regional office to inspect and approve a private ADF instrument approach here as a means of lowering the ceiling for commercial airliners.

Mayor J. Edwin Keech sent a letter to the FAA at Jamaica, Long Island, N. Y., Monday.

The instrument approach off Cumberland's marker beacon in Constitution Park would operate at 317 kilocycles. Keech pointed out that the city is in the process of trying to obtain airline service and it is understood if the local recommendation is approved, airlines can be brought in at 2,000 to 2,500 feet instead of the present ceiling of 4,500 feet.

Keech said the city feels if the ceiling were substantially reduced an airline could provide much better service to the community.

Warren R. Mullenax, operator of Cumberland Municipal Airport, explained that the regular airline instrument beam from Washington to Pittsburgh crosses Flintstone. Approval of the local beam would allow an airliner to veer from the regular flight beam and "home in" on the local signal. If for any reason, a landing here were impossible, it would follow the local beam back to the regular airline channel without trouble.

The city is currently involved in a hearing before the Civil Aeronautics Board concerning the application of Allegheny Airlines to drop Cumberland from its air schedule. Allegheny has not made flights into Cumberland since February 1959.

Burke Makes Statement On Candidates

The announcement in an Associated Press dispatch Saturday that he is on a Maryland labor committee serving for Sen. Wayne Morse in his race in the state presidential primary does not mean the endorsement of the candidate by any organization in which he holds office, Joseph Burke said yesterday.

Burke, who holds a number of local and state labor positions, reported that the article stating in the committee was a complete surprise and added that he had not been contacted by the Morse committee to serve on it.

However, Burke stated that he was called before Judge Harris informed Alvin Akman of the Re-tail Store Employees Union in Baltimore, chairman of the Morse committee, that he would be willing to arrange for a local hall lesson in the time he had al-in case the candidate would wish to speak here.

Burke said that Akman has informed him that Sen. Morse wants to speak in this section. The local man is affiliated with Local 26, Rubber Workers Union; Western Maryland Central Labor Council, and COPE, and is a state vice president of the Maryland-D.C. AFL-CIO Council.

Burke emphasized that the article stating that he was on the Morse committee does not imply that the organizations to which he belongs have endorsed these organizations, he added.

These organizations, he added, will not make an endorsement in a primary election.

Curb On Coins Helps U.S. Currency Value

For almost a decade U. S. money has been flowing mostly one way into Canada through such channels as investments and tourist trade. As a result, the U. S. dollar is being discounted in terms of Canadian currency.

For example, an American making a $10 purchase in Canada has to pay about $10.40 in U. S. funds at the current rate of exchange.

Up to now, however, U. S. coins have been circulating across the border at par. Unlike some Americans who at one time refused to take Canadian coins, Canadian hotels, restaurants and stores have accepted American coins at face value and a loss to themselves in the interest of tourist relations.

Even banks felt it was too much trouble to separate the silver and pennies of the two nations.

But in recent months entrepreneurs looking for an easy buck have been taking large quantities of U. S. coins into Canada in the hope of making as much as 5 per cent on the deal. It was an intriguing prospect—selling money for 5 per cent more than it was worth.

The Canadian banks have now put a stop to this by making the discount rate on U. S. coins 2 1/4 per cent higher than the rate on bills.

Ultimately, Americans may benefit from the banks' action. The effect of checking the traffic in coins will be to reduce the quantity of U. S. currency in Canada and thus strengthen the invading dollar. This has already been indicated.

In recent months the U. S. dollar has been worth only 95 cents or slightly less in Canada. After the action of the Canadian banks it rose to 96.52 cents before declining slightly again.

Fighting Inflation

The savings banks are at long last meeting the problem of inflation by advertising against it. It has been slow-going because the worst phase of inflation is excessive debt, which has become a standard American habit. The Federal Government is in debt; state and municipal governments are in debt; individuals are in debt. In fact, so much is debt encouraged that interest paid on private debt can be deducted as a business expense for income tax purposes.

The Bowery Savings Bank, one of the largest in the world, has been publishing full page advertisements against inflation. What this savings bank is advocating is that folks save their money and then buy what they want to buy for cash on hand. These advertisements particularly emphasize that financing costs are high. The Bowery Savings Bank summarizes its philosophy as follows:

"1. Ask the cash price, right at the start, of the article you are thinking about. Also add up the total of all the payments you will be required to make, including the down payment, if you purchased on time. The difference is the extra cost to you for buying on credit.

"2. With the facts straight, it's up to you to decide. Should you go ahead regardless, shop for the best financial plan you can find. Financing costs vary, as we have shown.

"3. Deal with responsible merchants and lending institutions. Even so, it's only fair to say that handling charge accounts or small loans is an expensive operation. Someone must pay for credit investigations, paper work, collection and other costs, inevitable losses."

And it establishes a well-known rule of economics: "The true annual interest on a loan, large or small, that you pay off in equal periodical installments is roughly double the rate quoted as the yearly finance charge, deducted in advance. This is true, no matter how much or little the quoted rate may be."

What is important in this discussion is not that we stop buying on credit, but that the borrower should know exactly what he is doing. In a word, excessive debt can lead to disaster, both individually and nationally.

There is another side to this picture. When a nation's currency is depreciating in value, it is sounder to buy things than to hold on to cash. Thus, life insurance policies, government bonds and savings are imperilled by inflation because it reduces the value of currency. When currency loses value, the whole people is impoverished.

Those who own money under such conditions, whether in this or any other country, invest their money in commodities of intrinsic value such as diamonds, paintings, antique furniture, or they ship their money to foreign countries for investment or savings. At present, for instance, it is less difficult to borrow money in many foreign countries than in the United States and medium-type businesses are taking full advantage of such an opportunity. Sometimes what they borrow is money the United States deposited in foreign lands for economic aid that has, in time, worked itself into a form of banking that indirectly becomes aid for American businessmen.

The advertisement, full page, of the Bowery Savings Bank means much more than appears on the surface. Obviously, if folks spend more than they earn, they will always be in debt. If they are paying usurious interest rates, and 18 per cent a year is usury in any language, the inflation is already beyond control. The Bowery Savings Bank advertisement says this:

"In another widely used financing plan the charge might be 1 1/2% a month, computed on the unpaid balance:

"That's true interest, but it's monthly interest, and 1 1/2% a month is 18% a year . . . 2% monthly is 24% yearly, and 2 1/2% monthly is 30% yearly."

Such rates are unconscionable and ought not to be allowed, no matter whether they keep goods moving or not. Our first problem is to save the value of our currency. A money-lender who would charge such rates would be called a Shylock. But is a finance company more privileged? Why?

Inflation is a frightful curse. It robs each individual who purchases goods. It also robs even if goods are not purchased. It can only help the very rich who can cover their losses by various devices; the rest must suffer from it. The savings banks advertisements are the first realistic attack on inflation.

Woes Of The Garbage Truck

Billy Graham's Easter Message Is Significant

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — Billy Graham's Easter message about race relations in America contains many significant passages. The world evangelist, just back from a tour of Africa, says the most burning issue of modern times is the race question, that people are discussing it all over the world and that it is not confined to South Africa or to the South in the United States. He says:

"Wherever two races, nationalities or cultures live side by side there are tensions and problems."

The real issue is one of mutual adjustment — whether it shall be forced, or follow the paths of evolution.

"The Bible," says Billy Graham, "recognizes that each individual has the right to choose his own friendships and social relationships. I am convinced that forced integration will never work. You cannot make two races love each other and accept each other at the point of bayonets. It must come from the heart if it is to be successful. Otherwise, we can build walls of hatred and prejudice that will take generations to overcome."

"Christ said that our problems come from within: 'out of the heart are the issues of life.' The Supreme Court can make all the decisions it feels are necessary; but, unless they are implemented by goodwill, love and understanding, great harm will be done. "I am equally convinced that 'Jim Crow' must go. It is absolutely ridiculous to refuse food or a night's lodging to a man on the basis of skin color. There are many cultured, refined, educated Negroes, Indians or Mexicans, who are insulted as human beings when they cannot get a decent place to sleep in many parts of our country."

The evangelist says that some clergymen of both races have unwisely made the "race issue" their gospel and that it is more important to create an atmosphere "where all racial differences can be settled and love can prevail," he added:

"This doesn't mean that the race problem is not to be preached and taught — but it is not to be our 'gospel' nor are we to judge a man's relationship to God solely on the basis of his attitude on the race question."

"The issue in America has moral, social and political implications, sometimes these questions are extremely complicated —and equally devout men see them somewhat differently. The Christian life requires growth by education and communion with God."

Unfortunately too many people who want to see the race problem solved overnight are too impatient. They cry out that they have "waited long enough," and they, therefore, approve of those who take the law into their own hands by inciting provocative demonstrations. Yet only a few years ago the lynch mobs felt the same way and wouldn't let the law take its course. Today lynchings are rare.

The core, however, of the race problem — intermarriage — is not often touched on by those who argue publicly about the theory of "integration." Anybody who has discussed this subject with fairminded Southerners will find that mere refusal to serve Negroes and whites at the same lunch counter is in itself not the issue. Nor is the question of mere attendance of Negroes and whites in the same schoolrooms the underlying obstacle. The possibility

Inside Washington

By Henry Cathcart

YOUTH—There was a lot of grumbling among the 7,000 delegates to the recent White House Conference on Children and Youth. The meeting, called every ten years during this generation, was considered by many to be too big—7,000 delegates—too unwieldy, and so broad in scope as to make specific accomplishments almost unattainable.

It was pointed out that past conferences concentrated on one aspect of the child-youth problem. This one considered the whole range and came up with numerous recommendations and proposed recommendations, most of them calling for more government spending.

The American conference participants were particularly concerned about the plight of some 500 foreign delegates. The representatives from other lands found that they could not participate because the problems of their nations were so unlike those in America.

In a discussion on diet and food, the American conferees were concerned about not getting too fat, while a foreign participant said her country's problem was how to get enough food to provide a sufficient and nutritious diet.

Syphilis Rate On Increase In United States

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Venereal disease is on the increase nationally. At least 10 per cent more cases of syphilis, the most serious of the group, have been reported. Excellent treatments are available and those who even suspect the disorder should see a physician or go to a clinic. If one or two tests prove negative, a third is advisable 90 days after the suspected exposure.

Penicillin is the best remedy and an injection daily for 10 days will eliminate the infection in most instances, especially in the early stages. There are several alternate antibiotics, including erythromycin and chloramphenicol, for those who are sensitive to penicillin.

This first antibiotic has withstood the test of time. It kills and eliminates the germs from the body. It took several years of followup study to determine how well it worked and it will take an equal length of time to find out whether the newer antibiotics do as well.

The primary stage of syphilis makes its debut approximately six weeks after a visit with an infected partner. A sore (chancere) appears at the point of contact which, unless treated, takes two to six weeks to heal. The lesion is highly contagious and teems with the causative organisms.

Then, for a short period, the disease seems to disappear but during this time the spirochetes are being disseminated throughout the body via the blood. A typical skin rash develops along with lesions in the mouth and other mucous membranes.

This stage (secondary) lasts weeks to months and again the disease appears to vanish. But the infection is slowly destroying the brain, blood vessels, and heart; in time, there are symptoms referable to these organs.

The manifestations of syphilis vary considerably. In some persons the first and second stages are too mild to be detected. The disease is recognized for the first time when a Kahn or other blood test is done during a physical examination or after the heart or brain is affected. Treatment at this stage is advisable but the chance of cure is not as good as when it is started earlier.

Harpo Marx loves to find short cuts when he's driving a car. Bound from Los Angeles to the sun-baked desert one morning, he insisted to a friend at the wheel that he knew a little-traveled side road that would cut the trip from four hours to less than three.

The friend accepted his suggestion and off they drove on the side road. Harpo hates to admit he's wrong, but after hours of steady but unproductive driving he finally conceded, "I guess we're lost."

"What makes you think so?" asked the friend sarcastically.

"For one thing," observed Harpo, "it's snowing."

Ezra Taft Benson Is Reconciled To Bowing Out Of Cabinet Soon

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — Ezra Taft Benson read his own political epitaph as Secretary of Agriculture the other day while testifying before the House Agricultural Appropriations Subcommittee. He knows that Nixon doesn't want him and the Democrats, if elected, wouldn't keep him.

In a closed-door session, Rep. Jamie Whitten of Mississippi remarked:

"Your administration has to run this fall, Mr. Secretary, and this subcommittee has to run again, so this may be the last chance we have to sit across the table from each other."

"I hope all of you will be back," replied Benson, with a half smile. "I do not expect to be."

How To Lose Friends

The trans-Pacific cables have been buzzing all week in regard to a serious blunder that could be made in connection with Eisenhower's trip to Japan in June.

The American Embassy in Manila has been warning the White House confidentially that the Filipino people will be bitterly resentful if he stops in Japan to visit an old enemy and ignores the Philippines, our best friends in the Pacific.

U. S. Ambassador Jack Hickerson in Manila a skilled diplomat, has been literally begging Eisenhower to stop off in the Philippines en route.

What causes hesitation at the White House is the fact that if Ike goes to the Philippines he would also have to stop off on the Island of Formosa to see Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek. And, though he would like to see Chiang, Ike's doctors don't want him to get bogged down with too many welcoming ceremonies.

However, this writer can report, following a recent visit to the Philippines, that the Filipino people are our most enthusiastic friends in the Pacific — though they could be like Cuba if neglected. Both the Philippines and Cuba were liberated from Spain following the Spanish-American war and both countries were then given their independence by the United States.

Democracy is much more deeply rooted in the Philippines than in Cuba. It is a passion with the Filipino people. Their elections are wide open and 90 per cent of the people vote. The United States is their great idol and no man can be elected to public office if he is openly critical of the USA.

The Philippines suffered great hardship under the Japanese occupation and there is still considerable bitterness. So, if Eisenhower visits Japan and shuns the Philippines it would leave a very sour taste with 19,000,000 people who now are devoted friends of the United States.

Kentucky Influence In London

During his recent visit in the United States, prime minister Macmillan had a "family tree" chat with Republican Sen. John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky.

"It is a well-known fact that Winston Churchill's mother was a Virginia girl," said Macmillan, "but I also have some American ancestry of which I am very proud."

"What do you mean?" asked Cooper.

"My grandfather was born in your State of Kentucky," replied the British prime minister.

"Now I understand why you have done so well or the political scene," said the Senator from Kentucky, "but I didn't realize Kentucky politics was so powerful that it extended to the British empire."

Chickens Come Home

One of the big accusations Bob Kennedy and his boss, Senator

McClellan of Arkansas, has been making against Jimmy Hoffa and the Teamsters Union is that Hoffa hired ex-convicts as labor union officials.

However, Senate chickens are now coming home to roost. The Teamsters' monitors, appointed by the Federal Court to watch the teamsters, have just discovered that they have been employing an ex-convict. Furthermore, his name is Kennedy. Finally, he was employed to look for criminal elements inside the teamsters.

That's why the monitors have suddenly dropped Pat Kennedy (no relation to the Senator from Massachusetts) as chief investigator for the monitors. They found that he had a record of several arrests and convictions including time in Sing Sing for assault and robbery.

Behind The Headlines

For years, Minnesota's energetic Sen. Hubert Humphrey has been trying to persuade the Agriculture Department to adopt a food-for-peace plan to distribute surplus food to needy countries. But the Agriculture Department has thrown one obstacle after another in the way. Last July, for example, Undersecretary of Agriculture True Morse testified against appointing a food-for-peace administrator. However, last week, under pressure of election-year politics, President Eisenhower appointed Don Paarlberg as "food-for-peace coordinator."

Congressman Emanuel Celler and Abraham Multer, both New York Democrats, denounced the Republican "voluntary" medical insurance plan for the aged last week as "a cruel hoax." Two days later, Vice President Nixon declared solemnly in San Francisco that the Democratic plan for old-age health insurance was "a cruel hoax."

Navy League members have been urged to fly to Anaheim, Calif., for their May 3 convention, then take a side trip to Acapulco, Mexico. "We have a ruling that this is tax exempt," writes Stanford Flint of Asbury, N. J., regional Navy League president, in a letter to members. Warning: those who try to deduct the trip will get a rude surprise at tax settlement time.

Jim Bishop: Reporter

By Jim Bishop

Every night, I brace myself in front of the television set to hear about the weather. I don't ask much. Just tell me whether it is going to rain or not. That's all. Nothing else. Still, that isn't what I get. After three or four minutes of listening I grind my teeth and I don't know what the weather is — and I don't care.

Sometimes, on T.V., at attractive lady does the talking; at other times it is a man. No matter which, the only difference is that her smile is mechanical and she seems to be rushing headlong toward hysteria. Her main interest, I would suggest, is making certain that the couturier who made her gowns gets a credit line.

In either case, the people begin by telling me what the weather has been like. This, it seems to me, is insolent because it assumes that I do not know. At times, I have come home drenched to the pelt to hear the weather lady coo: "In general, this was a fair day, with a few scattered showers."

Sometimes I feel like scattering her. The next step after telling me what I already know is to listen to the commercial. This, in the New York area, involves banks — I wonder why they never ask you to save for a rainy day? — and a public utility. The man who makes the pitch for the utility is a competent cartoonist who seems to know what he is talking about.

I wish I did. Sooner or later, he gets to the weather map and he (or she) uses a classroom pointer and shows me where the new high is beginning. I don't know what a high is — new or old — or what it is doing there. According to the announcer, it is moving northeast, but I can't figure out whether this is good or bad for us.

Behind the high, there is always a low, and it sort of sneaks up on the high, like a hangover after a wild night. The low has clockwise winds and the high moves counterclockwise — or is it the other way around? In any case, they are both swinging from the Great Lakes or the Gulf Ports or have stopped at Encino for refueling.

Between the high and the low comes a thing called a front. A front always moves, and, from the map, I would gather that many of them have moved through me, over me, and under me, but I have never seen one. The front, can be either cold or warm, although it would be sweet, for a change, to have a tepid front.

My father, who claims to understand these things (he used to insist he understood mamma too), now has Uncle Wetherbee's Weather Almanac. Before he turns the set on for the nightly news and weather, dad briefs himself on meteorological terminology, so that he can become confused easily.

Sometimes the unwary will find themselves at a stage where the involved weather report almost makes sense. Twice I found myself watching a low chasing a high out of the Carolinas and I could hardly wait until the following night to see the next episode. The craven high moved out to sea, I found, and the low was skulking around the Alleghenies, completely lost.

This, I think, is called a stationary front. Whatever it is, it sure ruined the story line. There is also an occluded front. This is like your arteries, only more so. There are also all kinds of cloud formations, like stratus, cumulus, altocumulus.

Another thing that can keep you fascinated is a degree day. This was originated by some silly engineers who went outdoors and decided that 65 degrees was an ideal day. Thus, if the temperature today is 64, we are in a one-degree day. Ask me anything, I'm hip.

Some of our weather announcers have piled up so many degree days that I'm afraid to look. They tell us that it has something to do with the amount of fuel burned in the house. I've gone into the cellar to explain it to my oil burner, but the thing keeps pounding morning, noon and night as though it were working for the Arabs. It drinks oil as though it were ninety proof.

Some day, if my patience holds out, I am sure that an announcer is going to come on at 11 p. m. and say: "You know what? It's going to rain tomorrow." That's all. Nothing else. The moment he gives me the word, I'll have a suit pressed and get the cook to put up a picnic lunch and make an early getaway.

I don't expect his predictions to be correct.

52,756 See Detroit Beat Indians In 15th Inning, 4-2

Kaline's Only Safety Wins For Burnside

Third Tiger Hurler Is Victor; Colavito Whiffs Four Times

CLEVELAND (UPI)—The Detroit Tigers spoiled Cleveland's home opener for 52,756 fans Tuesday when they scored a 4-2 victory over the Indians in a 15-inning battle.

The marathon tied the mark for an opening-day game set by the Philadelphia Athletics and Washington Senators April 13, 1926. The Indians finally broke up the game when he singled in the 15th inning after Pete Burnside, the Tigers' third pitcher of the long afternoon, walked and raced to third on Red Wilson's double.

Burnside, who took over in the 12th inning and shut out the Indians the rest of the way, reaped credit for the win while fire.

Frank Lary, a 17-game winner with the Tigers last season, and 16-game winner Gary Bell started and matched scores through 10 innings. The Tigers scored two runs in the 11th inning on Wilson's pinch single with the bases filled. The Indians tied it in the last of the 11th on Jimmy Piersall's two-run single with the bases filled.

The crowd was the largest to see an opening game in Cleveland since 1953.

A total of 38 players was used in the long, frigid contest almost half of which was played under lights. The game required four hours and 34 minutes, which made it the longest opener in major league baseball history.

One of the highlights of the game failed to develop too much action, the head-to-head clash between Rocky Colavito and Harvey Kuenn, who figured in a trade last Sunday.

Rocky Fans Four Times Kuenn got two hits, one a double, while Colavito not only hitless but struck out four times and hit into a double play. Kuenn, however, apparently pulled a thigh muscle late in the game and may miss some action.

Strikes Out Nine As Phils Win, 4-3

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Jim Owens gave up only three hits—one a three-run homer—in pitching the Philadelphia Phillies to a 4-3 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates Tuesday night.

Owens, starting his first game of the season, struck out nine and walked two. He fanned first baseman Dick Stuart three times.

The only time the Pirates gave Owens any trouble was in the third when they got three runs on Bob Skinner's home run into the right center field stands, his second of the year. Skinner scored behind Don Hoak, who reached first when Ted Lepcio fumbled his grounder, and Dick Groat, who had singled.

The only other hit off Owens was in the sixth when Roberto Clemente led off with a single.

Giants Are Blanked By Podres, 4-0

Dodgers Take Over Lead In National

By HAL WOOD
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Lefty Johnny Podres set the San Francisco Giants down with five scattered hits Tuesday while pitching Los Angeles to a 4-0 victory and undisputed possession of first place in the National League race.

Podres, who pitched his 10th straight win, was credited with five errors, Podres was in command time major league record for the all-time. It wasn't until the longest inaugural-day game, ninth inning that San Francisco made any kind of a threat.

The winning run came in the second inning. Veteran Carl Furillo, a right-handed batter, clouted the ball down the rightfield foul line and Kirkland overran it in the deep corner. Furillo wound the ball down the rightfield foul line and Kirkland overran it in the deep corner.

For eight innings Podres was hooked up in a tight mound with the Giants' Billy O'Dell. O'Dell allowed only four safeties and matched scores through 10 innings.

The Tigers scored two runs in the 11th inning on Wilson's pinch single with the bases filled. The Indians tied it in the last of the 11th on Jimmy Piersall's two-run single with the bases filled.

The crowd was the largest to see an opening game in Cleveland since 1953.

A total of 38 players was used in the long, frigid contest almost half of which was played under lights. The game required four hours and 34 minutes, which made it the longest opener in major league baseball history.

One of the highlights of the game failed to develop too much action, the head-to-head clash between Rocky Colavito and Harvey Kuenn, who figured in a trade last Sunday.

Rocky Fans Four Times Kuenn got two hits, one a double, while Colavito not only hitless but struck out four times and hit into a double play. Kuenn, however, apparently pulled a thigh muscle late in the game and may miss some action.

Minoso's 2nd Homer Of Game Tops A's, 10-9

Drives In 6 Runs In Chisox Victory

By GENE BLUDEAU
CHICAGO (UPI)—Minnie Minoso made a triumphant return to the Chicago White Sox Tuesday, driving in six runs on two home runs and a sacrifice fly, as the American League champions Pete Ramos, who went the distance for the Senators and gave Kansas City Athletics before a record opening-day crowd of 41,661.

Hits Grand Slam Minoso, who came to the White Sox in a seven-player deal this winter after a three-year absence, drove a 420-foot grand slam homer into the centerfield bullpen in the fourth inning. Then he led off the ninth with a bases-empty homer for the winning run.

The White Sox used six pitchers, four in the ninth inning when the Athletics tied the score with Norm Siebern's leadoff home run and Kenny Hamlin's run-scoring single.

The Sox jumped to a 9-2 lead by the fourth inning, collecting five runs in the first two innings on three Athletics errors. The A's drove starter Early Wynn from the mound in a three-run fifth inning and chased veteran Mike Garcia with two runs in the sixth.

Turk Lown held the A's scoreless until Siebern's home run in the ninth. Gerry Staley came on after Bob Cerv walked, but he faced only three batters and was picked for Hamlin's game-tying single.

Lefty Frank Baumann also faced one batter, issuing a walk to bring on Ray Moore. Moore got Bill Tuttle to ground into a double-play and end the inning.

Minoso then belted his second home run with a shot into the upper leftfield stands.

Moore Is Winner The victory went to Moore and the loss was charged to John Tsitouris, who pitched only to Minoso in the ninth.

Minoso's grand slammer was the fifth of his career. It came off Johnny Kucks after singles by Wynn and Aparicio and a walk to Nellie Fox.

Woodling's Hit In 7th Gives Orioles 3-2 Win

Jack Fisher Posts First Win Of Year Over Washington

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Gene Woodling's two-out double in the seventh inning scored Jackie Brandt from first base and gave the Baltimore Orioles a 3-2 victory over the Washington Senators Tuesday before 32,747 fans.

Woodling's blow followed a walk and a sacrifice fly, as the American League champions Pete Ramos, who went the distance for the Senators and gave Kansas City Athletics before a record opening-day crowd of 41,661.

Fisher Gets Win Jack Fisher, who took over for starter Jerry Walker in a bases-loaded situation in the sixth, was the winner. He got pinch hitter Julio Becquer to rap into a double play, first to home to first, to get out of the jam, then pitched three hits, allowing one safety per frame.

Walker, who lasted five and one-third innings, was bothered by wildness, walking six and allowing five hits. Two of these were successive triples in the third inning by former Orioles Billy Gardner and Lenny Green for the first Washington run.

Robinson Hits Homer The Orioles went ahead, 2-1, when Brooks Robinson homered with one on in the fourth. The Senators tied it against Walker with Bob Allison stroking a run-scoring single. Walker, who had walked rookie Don Mincher earlier in the inning, loaded the bases by passing Earl Battey. That brought on Fisher for the rescue job.

Oriole manager Paul Richards started the season by getting tossed out of the game in the sixth inning for arguing with umpire Larry Napp.

Frostburg Police Will Curb Speed

Council Orders Drive On Autoists

FROSTBURG — Speeding motorists and trucks entering the eastern and western parts of the community were discussed at Monday's City Council meeting.

William Goebel, police commissioner, was authorized to take steps to bring the matter under control. Police were instructed to arrest all violators, and the city will ask maximum fines.

Kenneth Kennedy and Charles Frost asked council to pave Armstrong Street from Route 40 to the city limits. Street Commissioner William Preston said the paving project was in his overall street improvement program and would be taken care of in its turn.

The city clerk was instructed to offer one of the community's trucks for sale. Sealed bids will be sought.

Goebel was instructed to secure warrants for Abe Feldstein, owner of the old ice plant property, and Evan Rees, owner of the apartment house at the corner of Bowers and East Main Streets. Both men were given time to improve their properties to conform with state safety codes or face prosecution. The time limit has expired.

Goebel was told to check a number of places where junk is stored in the city limits, and to take legal action if necessary.

"Clean-Up" week will be observed May 2-4. City trucks will pickup trash, along with garbage, twice a week. Residents have been urged to have trash in containers that can be easily handled. Heavy articles such as bricks and barrels or dirt will not be removed. These will be taken care of by home owner.

The city clerk was instructed to notify R. Bowen Hardesty, president of Frostburg State Teachers College, that the city will consider the sale of the old NYA building to the college, provided certain conditions can be met.

Finance Commissioner Herbert Loar was granted permission to send the swimming pool manager to a school in Baltimore.

The city was offered the use of a new type police cruiser for a two-year period by the manufacturer. The city accepted the proposition.

Residents have been asked to cooperate with two projects. Repair sidewalks that have heaved during the winter, creating hazardous walking conditions, and avoid parking too close to curbs and intersections in order to give painters an opportunity to repaint wall lines on streets and curbs where needed.

Daylight Time Plan Adopted At Piedmont

Council Favors Summer Program

PIEDMONT — The Mayor and Council last night unanimously adopted Daylight Saving Time, effective Sunday at 2 a. m., in conjunction with Allegany County regulations.

Melvin Largent complained of excessive noises coming from a club on Erin Street, and parking in the area. He suggested that parking be permitted only on one side of the street.

Mayor Rodney Baker said the town has an ordinance stating that all places must close at midnight. The regulation will be enforced, he added.

Applications for employment at the Piedmont swimming pool must be filed with Joseph Maybury, town clerk, by May 2. Positions at the pool include: Manager, life guards, ticket sellers and basket attendants. The pool will open Memorial Day.

Receipts from parking meters the past two weeks amounted to $317.44, Maybury reported.

John Gannon, Murphy Street, was granted a permit to replace a porch with a concrete front.

The mayor read a letter from the Department of Public Safety, Charleston, calling attention to traffic accidents between Memorial Day and Labor Day. The communication asked police officers to concentrate on speed, speed too fast for conditions, improper passing, following too close and failing to give the right-of-way.

Sen. Randolph Is Neutral In W.Va. Primary

By CARLO J. SALZANO United Press International

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI) — Sen. Jennings Randolph (D-W. Va.) said Tuesday he did not think the presidential preference race would cause any split in West Virginia Democratic ranks.

He said while different Democrats now have different views as to their presidential choice now, this would not result in disunity in the November general elections.

Randolph said the hotly contested battle between Sens. John F. Kennedy and Hubert Humphrey in the May 10 presidential preference race "will leave no scars within the party." Randolph has steered a carefully-plotted — neutral course in the presidential sweepstakes.

"West Virginia Democrats will make their choices between the two candidates and they'll exercise them individually at the polls," he said. "There'll be no misunderstandings and party members will join together in the November elections to achieve victory."

Randolph said he thinks the Humphrey-Kennedy race will bring out an additional 10 to 15 per cent more Democratic voters. "This will be good for all the candidates," he said.

"Better government results when more people participate in an election," he said. "No one can quarrel with this."

Randolph disagreed with former President Harry S. Truman who recently expressed the feeling that presidential preference primaries are of no benefit.

"They serve a useful purpose in that they give the people a chance to express themselves," Randolph said. "It gives the voter a chance to closely examine the records of the candidates and to express his or her personal opinion."

Randolph stopped here en route to Frankford, Greenbrier County, where he introduced Sen. Frank Church (D-Idaho), speaker at a Democratic rally Thursday night.

Randolph will be speaker at a Democratic dinner in Moorefield, Friday night and will speak at a Chamber of Commerce banquet at Elkins Saturday. On Sunday he will participate in dedication of a new VFW building at Hinton.

County Board Approves Record Levy

Expenditures Up $921,548 Despite Cut In Tax Rate

A fiscal budget of $5,602,536.73 for the fiscal year starting July 1 was adopted yesterday by the Allegany County Board of Commissioners, which at the same time reduced the county tax rate two cents from $2.22 to $2.20 on each $100 of assessed valuation.

The budget for the new fiscal year is a whopping $921,548.19 more than the $4,680,988.55 total for the current fiscal year, and yet the county commissioners adopted a levy which calls for the county to collect $33,400 less in direct taxes on county property.

A year ago, the county commissioners anticipated the $3,446,400 from county real estate and personal property taxes, and yesterday they put down a figure of $3,413,000. The commissioners figured yesterday's total on the basis of a total assessment of $164,000,000, up $2,000,000 from last year.

Commissioner John T. Mason, who has assumed responsibility as the specialist in fiscal affairs, explained that the real assessable basis is closer to $170,000,000 but the other $6,000,000 is not being figured in so that a "cushion" can be realized next year.

This so-called "cushion" technique has been followed by previous county commissioners for years. It is one of the factors that enables the county to spend more money while keeping the tax rate relatively stable.

Three items cause increase for virtually all of the increase in the county budget. One is a $365,087.34 increase in highway construction money which does not come from county sources.

This new budget lists $414,087.34 for highway construction projects. That is $365,087.34 more than the $49,000 in last year's budget for supplementary matching funds for federal-aid road projects.

Another $307,816.17 is available as a result in the increase in the estimated unexpended balance from the previous levy from last year's $107,905.56 to this year's $415,722.73. The third large item is $235,000 which has come from the State Department of Education and which can be used for school debt service. These three items add up to $907,903.51, virtually the entire increase in the county budget.

Some of the new items in the 1960-61 budget really represent just new methods of accounting for expenditures. For instance, last year's budget for buildings listed a single item of $15,000 for repairs to county buildings. This year an attempt is made to separate the expenditures by buildings. For instance, $98,847.57 is earmarked for the Court House, $10,699.20 for the Union Street Building, $2,400 for the Cumberland Street Building used by the County Welfare Department, $16,000 for the new juvenile detention quarters at the County Infirmary and $10,000 for insurance.

Four New Items

Four items really could be called new ones. Included are $25,000 for planning and zoning, just established this year; $6,100 for other school projects, $33,600 for the county library which is being established, and a lump sum of $75,000 for salary increases for county employees. These will be prorated after a job reclassification is completed. There is a separate item this year of $1,500 for general liability insurance, which previously was grouped with other insurance.

Individual accounts in the 1960-61 levy list vary, although the majority are higher than in the budget for the year now coming to an end. Forty-three are increased, 20 decreased and 17 remain unchanged.

Those higher than in the current budget include the following:

County commissioners, $15,869, up $3,999; clerk to county commissioners, $5,875, up $175; secretary to county commissioners, $3,600, up $80; Circuit Court stenographer, $6,270, up $200; magistrates, $22,200, up $823.40; state's attorney, $21,330, up $1,000; Circuit Court librarian, $6,600, up $80; medical and social service, $1,000, up $400; Juvenile Court and attorney's fees, $18,600, up $2,800; People's Court, $21,217.60, up $797.60.

LINDA SWEEN

Beall Student Princess For Carnival Here

Linda Sween Will Represent Frostburg

One of Beall High School's most popular seniors, Linda Sween, who will study at West Virginia University next year, has been named princess to represent Frostburg in the court of Mercedes Arelliza, daughter of the Spanish ambassador to the United States, who will reign as queen over the Cumberland Sports Carnival to be held here May 9 to 15.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blank, Miss Sween is president of the science club, Tri-Hi-Y, and her homeroom. She is a member of the National Honor Society, captain of majorettes, secretary of the senior class, plays the flute in the Beall High Band and is a member of the All-County Band.

The accomplished young lady was chosen for a D. A. R. award this year. During her freshman and junior years she served as a Student Forum representative, and was an attendant in the May queen's court in the eighth and eleventh grades.

Last year she was an attendant to the junior prom queen, and as a sophomore served as vice president of her class. She is now a member of the Allegany Methodist Church Choir, and in addition to her many other accomplishments, she plays the piano.

In the queen's court with Miss Sween during the Sports Carnival will be young ladies representing most of the communities within a 75-mile radius of Cumberland.

The main functions in which they will participate will be a pageant which will be climaxed by the crowning of the queen, to be held at Allegany High School, the Queen's Dinner at the Cumberland Country Club, preceding participation in a mammoth parade to be held in downtown Cumberland.

School Board Purchases Bus

The Allegany County Board of Education yesterday awarded the contract for a new school bus to Morton Chevrolet of Frostburg on a low bid of $4,310 including the trade-in of an old bus.

This new bus will be used by Wallace M. Walker in transporting his vocational industrial arts students from Allegany High School to the Trade School on Paca Street.

Other bidders on the school bus, according to Superintendent of Schools Ralph R. Webster, were St. George Motor Company, Collins GMC Truck Company, Collins Studebaker Garage, Heiskell Motor Sales and the Light and Decker Company.

The school board yesterday also awarded two school bus routes to low bidders for the new school year starting in September. J. N. Wilson was awarded the Valley Road route on a low bid of $18.95 a day. Guy Stonestreet was the low bidder on the Bedford Road route on a bid of $19 a day. Ward Wilson, who had been the contractor for both routes for a number of years, is relinquishing them at the end of the school year.

Use of Flintstone School was granted to two groups. The Home-Makers Club was given permission for use of the auditorium on May 5 and a five-county 4-H Club conference on June 28.

Youth Faces Charges In Fatal Accident

Philip Davidson, 17, To Be Given Hearing

State's Attorney James S. Getty said yesterday Philip Marshall Davidson, 17, of 754 National Highway, LaVale, will be charged with manslaughter by automobile in the accident last Friday which claimed the life of a 15-year-old local boy.

Victim of the crash was Harry L. Dean III of 213 Holland Street, who was a passenger in a vehicle operated by Davidson.

The two youths were riding in a small convertible sports car when it ran off the Oldtown Road near Spring Gap and landed in the old C&O Canal.

Authorities ruled the Dean boy apparently struck his head on a rock and drowned. The Davidson youth was taken to Memorial Hospital where he was treated for injuries.

The accident was investigated by Troopers Charles Snow and George Wacner. State Police indicated the Davidson youth also faces several motor vehicle charges.

The two boys were headed south on Route 51 to the Oldtown area to go fishing. State Police said skid marks at the scene of the accident indicated the sports car was traveling at a high rate of speed.

Mr. Getty said the youth will be given a hearing next week in Trial Magistrate Court.

Traffic Signs Go Up At Y Intersection

The Police Department yesterday began placing temporary traffic signs at the Central YMCA intersection.

All of the signs controlling traffic at the intersection are expected to be up within a few days. A total of 14 will be needed. The signs will remain in use until the Maryland State Roads Commission prepares and installs permanent signs controlling traffic at the point.

The SRC, officials said, is responsible for installing signs on all federal-aid routes within the city limits.

Police officials said they believe traffic will begin moving smoothly over the intersection once the signs are up and residents become familiar with the new traffic pattern.

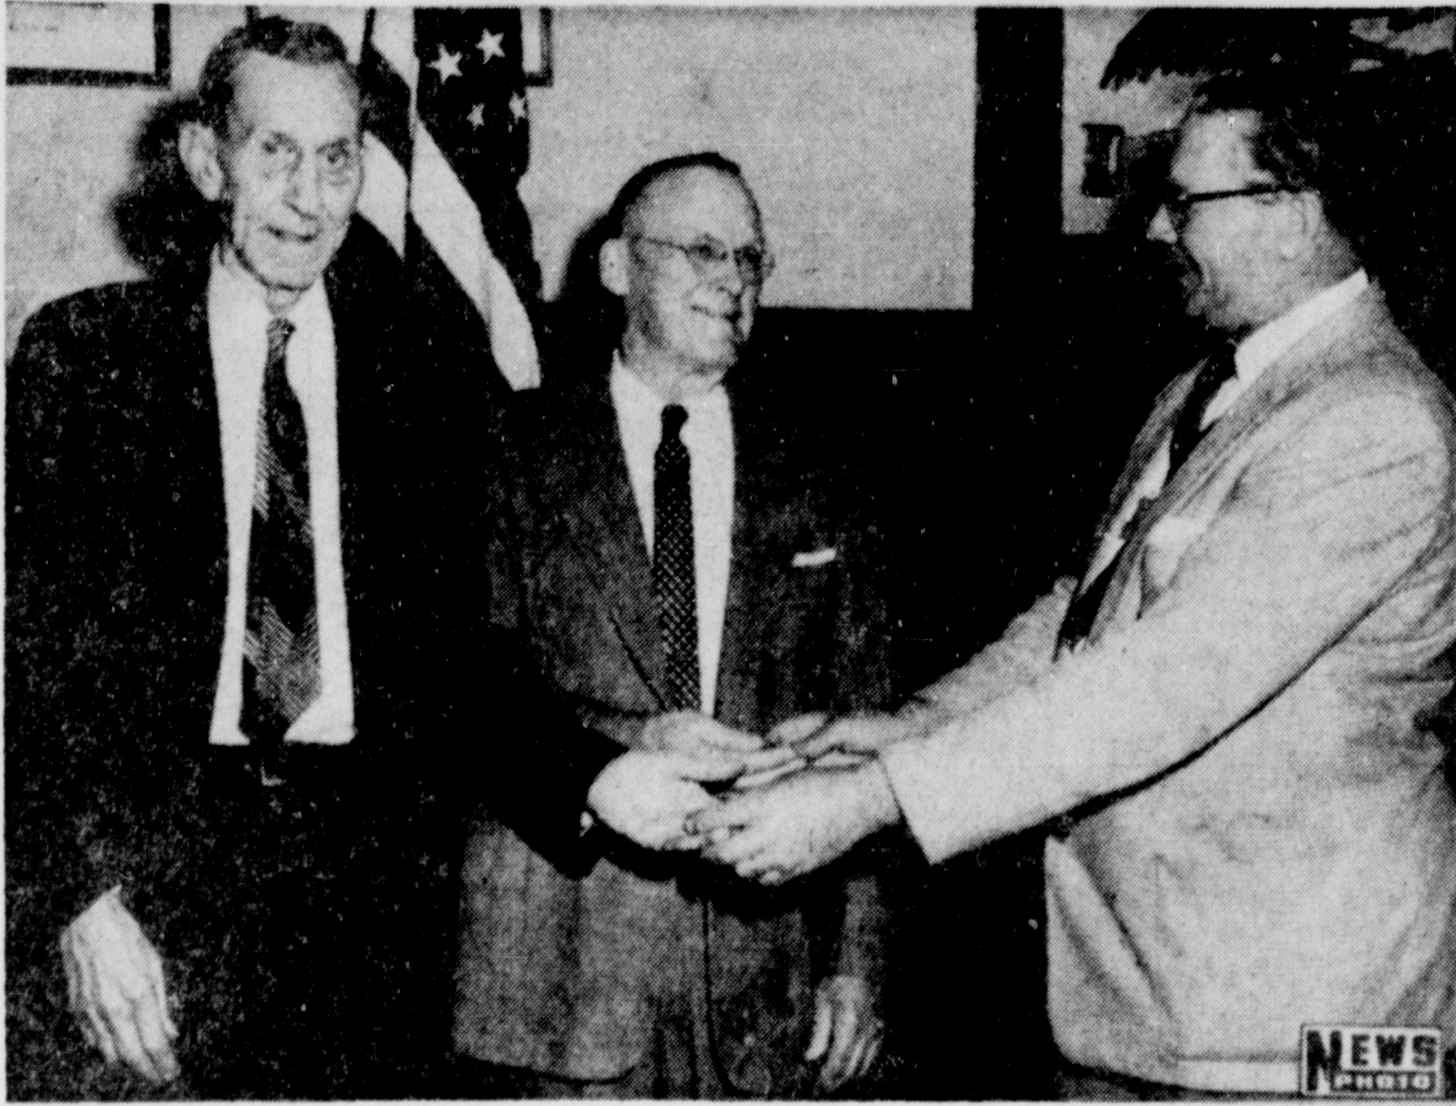

Two traffic islands were placed last week to channelize traffic at the intersection under a plan approved by the Maryland State Roads Commission.

There are three major changes in the traffic pattern. Baltimore Avenue from Central YMCA to Henderson Avenue will be one-way east; Henderson Avenue, between Baltimore Avenue and Front Street, will be one-way west and traffic from Baltimore Street above the Y will be allowed to make only a right turn.

Phone Rate Hike Brings Protests

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Public Service Commission said Tuesday it is being flooded with letters protesting a rate increase proposed by the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Co.

The mail has included a formal protest from the Allegany County commissioners and a petition signed by 100 Talbot County residents.

The company has asked the PSC for a $13,500,000 rate increase. This would mean a boost of about 10 per cent in the average telephone bill.

The firm recently presented its case to the commission and argued that the rate increase is necessary to combat effects of inflation on its capital investment.

Rudolf A. Carrio, people's counsel, will start cross-examining company witnesses May 25. The Board of Public Works recently granted the PSC $18,000 in emergency funds to hire consultants and analyze the company's testimony.

Meanwhile, Baltimore attorney Hyman Pressman and the General Services Administration have been given permission to intervene in the case.

The commission said its files on the case are rapidly approaching a foot in thickness.

Cresaptown Gets Lower Rate; Others Renewed

The supplemental levy for the Cresaptown Civic Improvement Association was lowered yesterday 10 cents by the Allegany County Board of Commissioners to 30 cents on each $100 of assessable property while the rates in the other special taxing areas were left unchanged for the new fiscal year starting July 1.

Cresaptown needs its special levy for maintenance of water lines.

The levy for the LaVale Sanitary Commission was set again at 10 cents. The assessable value of property within the LaVale Sanitary District now stands at $11,401,950 and it is necessary to raise at least $11,000 by taxation for payment of interest and principal on serial bonds maturing in the year.

The Mt. Savage special taxing area rate also will remain at 12 cents for the new fiscal year. At least $1440 is needed there for street lights in the ensuing year.

Lowest of the four special rates is for the Potomac Park Addition, which remains at eight cents on each $100 of assessable property. At least $747.44 is needed there for street lights and fire protection.

Charles E. Witt Lodged In Jail

Two members of Ali Ghan Shrine early yesterday morning succeeded in catching a young man who police said had broken into the Shrine Country Club on Baltimore Pike on five different occasions since April 8.

Charles Edward Witt, 20, formerly of Mt. Savage, was surprised about 3 a. m. by two club members after he had broken into the club by forcing two locks.

Witt was questioned yesterday afternoon by County Investigator Edwin R. Lilya and Tfc. Milt G. Hart of the State Police, who said he admitted the series of breaking and enterings at the club.

The first entry occurred on April 8 when $20 in cash, 100 miniatures of whisky, an electric coffee maker and an electric hot plate were removed from the building.

The young man told authorities that on the other times he broke into the building he took a small amount of cash from a register.

When Witt entered the clubhouse early yesterday morning the two club members nabbed him and notified State Police.

Mr. Lilya said Witt recently was released from the Federal Reformatory at Petersburg, Va., after serving a term for auto theft and was placed on parole until January 1964.

Witt, who had been staying at the local "Y", told authorities he was employed at a local restaurant and broke into the Shrine Club after finishing work late at night. All of the breaking and enterings occurred during the early morning hours, police said.

He has been charged with breaking and entering and larceny and is being held in the County Jail.
